SUMMARY

I'm a passionate character animator currently live in New York City area. I graduated from Animation Mentor School with a Diploma in Advanced Character Animation Studies in June 2016 and always had a passion for illustration and animation. This is something what I really enjoy to do! I have a strong understanding of principles of animation, solid knowledge of body mechanics and facial expressions, keen eye for details. I would love to join a creative team where I can deliver value, keep learning and grow as a professional animator.
